

KPI in the Planning Hierarchy

KPI may be thought of as an essential element of the overall planning and monitoring system.

They are derived from the College's or Departmental Mission and help track performance towards accomplishing the Mission.

A KPI is not a single component, but an integrated collection of components.

