

Newsletter

Q3 2024, September edition

ASIA - PACIFIC

Indus University, Pakistan

Indus University Holds Comprehensive Review of Institutional Performance and Enhancement (RIPE)

Indus University recently conducted a Review of Institutional Performance and Enhancement (RIPE), spanning three days in August 2024. The review involved both external and internal experts, focusing on evaluating key areas like academic performance, governance, research, and community engagement. This comprehensive assessment aims to enhance institutional operations and ensure long-term excellence, aligning the university with evolving educational standards and strengthening its overall impact.

