

Exploring Nature Through Design!

Interior Design students from FCD took an educational trip to Mir's Mini Forest as part of their Landscape Design course.

This hands-on experience allowed them to connect with sustainable design principles in a real-world natural setting.

